CHAPTER V.

PRINTING AND DISTRIBUTION OF LAWS AND DOCUMENTS.

*§ 34. Distribution of laws, etc., continued. The secretary of state shall deliver to the governor, for his own use, two copies of the laws and one copy of the journals and documents; to the auditor and treasurer of state, each, three copies of the laws and one of the journals and documents; to the attorney general, the adjutant general, the railroad commissioner, the commissioner of insurance, the commissioner of statistics, the clerk of the supreme court, the superintendent of public instruction, the superintendent of every state benevolent institution, the warden of the state prison, to the United States circuit judge, to the United States district judge, to the clerk of each of the United States courts, and to the United States marshal, one copy of the same; and shall furnish the state librarian with such number of copies of the printed laws, statutes, reports of the supreme court, journals of the senate and house of representatives, and public documents, as will be necessary to supply each state, and each of the departments and territories of the United States, and the general government of the United States with a copy; he shall furnish the library with five copies of the general and special laws, both journals, and the volumes of executive documents; and shall deliver to the secretary of the historical society twenty copies of the general laws, ten copies of the special laws and journals, and fifty copies of the executive documents. (1874, c. 7, § 32, as amended 1879, c. 16, § 1. *§ 34a and *§ 34b. See slip.)

See pages 79-80.

Add to § 34, p. 88:

And for all payments into the state treasury by the treasurer of any of the counties of the state he shall issue duplicate receipts, one of which shall be sent to the treasurer, and the other to the auditor of the county. (As amended 1881, c. 12, § 1.)

*§ 34, 44a. See 1387 Sup. t. p. 8.

CHAPTER VI.

STATE OFFICERS.

(See p. 130, post, as to certain officers in charge of state capitol.)

See page 85.

*§ 44. Use of sinking and other funds. That the state treasurer is authorized to borrow and use temporarily from the sinking or other funds, other than any school funds, one hundred thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary to supply any deficiency that may exist in the revenue fund: provided, that it will not impair said respective funds so that they cannot meet all demands as the exigencies may require. (1874, c. 9, § 1, as amended 1881, c. 6, § 1.)

See page 90.

*§ 44a. Bonds to be destroyed. Whenever the board of auditors of the state treasury, created by chapter eleven of the general laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, shall find that the sinking fund holds any bonds of the state which have been redeemed by the state treasurer, they shall carefully compare such redeemed bonds with the register kept in the treasurer's office, and proceed to have them destroyed, certifying in said register how and when destroyed. (1879, c. 90, § 1.)

STATE BOARD OF IMMIGRATION.

*§ 107. Appointment. There is hereby created a state board of immigration, which shall consist of the governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, clerk of the supreme court, and Dillon O'Brien. (1879, c. 76, § 1.)

*§ 108. Duties of the board. It shall be the duty of the state board of immigration created by section one, of this act, to publish, or cause to be published, a pamphlet and circulars treating of and describing the developed and undeveloped resources of this state, and to do everything which, in their judgment, may enhance and encourage immigration into this state; and the said board may have printed, from time to time, such numbers of said pamphlet and circulars in any language as may, in their judgment, best serve the interest of the state. (Id. § 2, as amended 1881, c. 34, § 1.)

*§ 109. May employ secretary. The board may employ a suitable person to act as secretary, and to do such other work in the way of corresponding, distributing papers, pamphlets and maps, and writing articles as they may order. The salary of said secretary shall not exceed twelve hundred dollars per year. (Id. § 3, as amended 1881, c. 34, § 2.)

See page 102.

*§ 110. Quorum for business. Three members of the board of immigration shall constitute a quorum, and shall have authority to act on all questions brought before the board. (Id. § 5.)

*§ 111. Appropriation for the use of the board. The sum of ten thousand (10,000) dollars is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the use of said board of immigration, and to be expended by them to carry out the objects of this act as provided in the foregoing sections. (Id. § 4, as amended 1881, c. 34, § 3.)

See page 103.

*§ 114. Reports to the legislature. It shall be the duty of said board of immigration to make reports of their labors and proceedings to the state legislature. (Id. § 8.)
